

Roberta Braccia

Associate professor

✉ roberta.braccia@giuri.unige.it

☎ +39 0102099994

Education and training

1999

PhD in History of Medieval Modern and Contemporary Law Institutions and Juridical Culture (XI cycle)

University of Genoa

Academic experience

2012 - ONGOING

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR

DEP. OF LAW - SCHOOL OF SOCIAL SCIENCES -UNIVERSITY OF GENOA - GENOA
- IT

President of the 'Commissione Paritetica' of the School of Social Sciences at the University of Genoa.

2005 - 2012

TENURED RESEARCHER

UNIVERSITY OF GENOA- FACULTY OF LAW - GENOA

1999 - 2005

Post-Doc research fellow

University of Genoa- Faculty of Law - Genoa

1996 - 1999

PhD bursary holder

University of Genoa - Genoa

Language skills

French

Independent

English

Independent

German

Basic

Research interests

As evidenced by my publications, my research interests focus on the history of Legislation and Institutions and on history of Family Law in the Late-Medieval and Modern age. I've studied statutory law in Genoa and Liguria, in particular, publishing several articles and one book. Recently my research interests focus on the history of the Genoa University and history of commercial law (jurists and jurisprudence also) between the nineteenth and twentieth centuries.